October 1, 2012

Dear Colleague:

The University of Colorado is proud to announce the CU High School Honor Band to be held March 1 – 2 2013, in Macky Concert Hall on the University of Colorado's Boulder campus. The guest conductor will be Joseph Missal from Oklahoma State University.

Please read the enclosed audition information and keep it on file. Please contact your local on-site director to arrange specific audition times for your students. Your students should bring their completed application forms with them to their audition. PLEASE ensure that your students’ forms are LEGIBLE. Audition evaluators will be Allan McMurray, Director of Bands; Matthew Roeder, Associate Director of Bands; Assistant Director of Bands, Dana Biggs; and representatives from the Wind, Brass and Percussion Faculties of CU. Any questions should be directed to the address above or by telephoning the Band Office at 303/492-6584 or by email at Diana.Wilson@colorado.edu if you prefer.

All auditioning directors will receive a list of students selected for CU Honor Band and all students will be notified by December 31, 2012. Music excerpts will be mailed to students by the first week in February. This will allow practice time for your students prior to the High School Honor Band placement auditions and rehearsals. Your support of the CU High School Honor Band by arranging local on-site auditions, or by sending taped recordings for your most talented students will make this event a highly rewarding experience for all concerned.

We are also pleased to announce the continuation Summer Music Academy for high school and middle school students in Band and Orchestra.

High School Music Academy: The High School Academy will be an opportunity for a select number of the most talented band and orchestra students from Colorado and around the country to receive world-class instruction in a one-week summer session, June 16-21, 2013. The selected participants will be placed into a wind ensemble and/or chamber orchestra setting with limited instrumentation and a nationally-renowned conductor. Each student will also be divided up into one of many small ensembles in order to gain invaluable chamber experiences. Students will also select electives based on their interests that will serve as preparation for collegiate music degree programs. Students can use their audition for CU Honor Band as an audition for the Summer Music Academy, or they can audition via the web at http://music.colorado.edu/summermusicacademy.

Middle School Music Academy: The Middle School Academy, June 23-28, 2013, will be an opportunity for middle school band and orchestra musicians with a wide range of talent and experience to receive world-class instruction in a fun, relaxed and nurturing environment. All students will be placed into a band or string orchestra setting with a nationally-renowned conductor who has experience working with this age group. Students will attend seminars and participate in activities that train the students in the fundamentals of music and music performance. The Middle School Academy is open to all students upon completion of grades 6,7, and 8.

I look forward to seeing you and your students in the near future.

If I can be of any assistance to you or to your program, please don't hesitate to call.

Cordially,

Allan McMurray,
Director of Bands
CU HIGH SCHOOL HONOR BAND
Joseph Missal, Guest Conductor

I recommend this candidate as an official representative of this high school. I understand that if chosen to attend and perform in the CU HIGH SCHOOL HONOR BAND, he/she must attend in order not to deprive someone else of this opportunity, and that in order to utilize complete rehearsal time and to be fair to other players, anyone arriving late to rehearsals may be demoted or dropped from the band. I also understand that the chaperonage of players is the responsibility of each high school, and that each high school is responsible for either the housing of its own members in Boulder or returning them to their homes for the night involved.
